

Day 2 activities:

1. Identified the suitable places for plantation
2. Digging of pits for the plantation.
3. Awareness programmed to the villagers about the problems of water wasting.
4. Discussed with concerned team to provide solution to the drainage problem.
5. Interaction with the school authorities and got to know the problems around the school.

Major findings

- Lack of manpower in Anganwadicentre due to which children are not able to get the food supplied by government

Noteworthy incidents:

- Experiencing enthusiastic participation of villagers in plantation programmes and children active involvement in interaction

Day3 activities:

1. Plantation in the pits made in the second day.
2. Distribution of plants to the villagers.
3. Repair of the roads the villages.

Major findings

- Accumulation of drainage water on the roads.

Noteworthy incidents:

- Villagers active support in repairing roads.

Day4 activities:

1. We communicated with village people and discussed about plantation and their uses.
2. Display of videos about greenery and how to keep our surroundings clean.
3. Explained the villagers about how to do self-employment and earn money being at home.
4. We conducted cultural programs to entertain the village people

Major findings

- Accumulation of drainage water on the roads.

Noteworthy incidents:

- Villagers active support in repairing roads

Day5 activities:

1. Awareness program about literacy and education.
2. We explained to rural students how get scholarship.
3. We played videos about literacy and it's uses.
1. We communicated with village people and discussed about plantation and their uses.
2. Display of videos about greenery and how to keep our surroundings clean.
3. Explained the villagers about how to do self-employment and earn money being at home.
4. We conducted cultural programs to entertain the village people

Major findings

- Accumulation of drainage water on the roads.

Noteworthy incidents:

- Villagers active support in repairing roads

Day6 activities:

1. Meeting with the village Sarpanch and explained details of how people are suffering due to lack of street lights and drainage system.
2. We enquired about the possibilities of providing street lights in the village. As he said it's not possible to provide at current scenario, we requested him to provide the necessary things at the earliest. We also ensured that we will give support to him whenever required.
3. Given awareness to villagers about first aid to save life in emergency.

Noteworthy incidents:

- Villagers active support in repairing roads

Day7 activities:

1. Given training to villagers on self-employment such as candle making, paper arts and how to make mats with waste clothes.
2. Display of all processes through videos to and involved them for live demo sessions.
3. Closing session by our dignitaries from Institute and public speech by villagers.
4. They were overwhelmed by the presence of villagers in the program and indicated it as a symbol of effective work.

Noteworthy incidents:

- Very much encouraging feedback from villagers regarding the whole camp and assurance from them to continue the same further.

