Press Note

RGUKT-Delayed arrival of printed online applications for admissions 2014 along with enclosures is 21 Jun2014

07 June 2014, Hyderabad- The response for admissions into the six year integrated

B.Tech programme offered by the Rajiv Gandhi University of Knowledge Technologies (RGUKT) has been very good in this year too. The university has received 28,000 so far. However it is found that candidates are delaying the sending of hard copies of applications along with proper enclosures to the Registrar, RGUKT. The last date to receive printed applications along with enclosures is up to 5PM on 21-6-2014. The applications received later shall not be considered.

A number of applications received are incomplete and hence invalid. Names of such applicants are put up at the university website as "Invalid Applications".The candidates whose name appear in the invalid applications list on the university's website should see to it that the required documents are sent and the application status is changed from invalid to valid within 21-6-2014. The applicants are advised to constantly browse the website.
