RGUKT On-line Applications-Temporary shutdown of APOne at nights on 30th, 31st May and 1st Jun 2014

30 May 2014, Hyderabad- The response to RGUKT online applications for the admission into six year integrated B.Tech programme has been significantly better than last year. The application process started on 21 May 14 evening and so far 19,308 applications have been received through APOne and RGUKT website, put together.

The last date for receiving applications on-line will be up to 16 Jun 2014. According to communication received from the APOne, the APOne link for online registration and fee payment may not be available for application process between 9PM to 9AM on 30 and 31 May and 1 Jun 2014 in view of the bifurcation of the state but will be resumed after that.

A number of applications submitted so far are found to be incomplete due to non submission of enclosure documents such as caste and study certificate. The list of incomplete applications will be displayed on the RGUKT website so that the applicants submit the documents and make their applications valid. Otherwise the applications will be invalid.

The students who passed from CBSE and ICSE boards can also apply online and students should submit application with a lot of care and proper enclosures. Applicants should note that incomplete applications will not be considered. There are supernumerary seats (100 for other state students and children of Indian workers in Gulf countries + 50 for foreign students). Details are available at the RGUKT website.
